Safari Packages TnC's

1. Booking Confirmations

Please note that all bookings are confirmed subject to availability. Travellers are ONLY allowed to make payments after the booking has been confirmed and the confirmation is received by the Traveller. Muyeni Resort & Safaris will not be held responsible if any payment is made before confirmation of booking. If payment is made before confirmation of booking and the booking is subsequently found to be unavailable, any refunds will attract a 30% penalty.

2. Booking Cancellations

Cancellation of a Booking on the Travel Date will result in forfeiture of the full deposit. Subject to cancellation policies specified by any of our third-party service providers, any cancellations for bookings made three (3) weeks or more before the travel date, notification of cancellation of booking should be made fourteen (14) days before the travel dates to be eligible for a full refund of the deposit. For bookings made two (2) weeks or less before the travel date, notification of cancellation should be made one (1) week before the travel date to be eligible for a full refund of the deposit. For bookings made one (1) week or less before travel dates, notification of cancellation of booking should be made three (3) days before the travel date to be eligible for a full refund of the deposit. Failure to adhere to the above time limits will attract a 30% Cancellation Fee. We reiterate that the cancellation policies in effect for any of our third-party service providers may in some instances supersede the above terms and conditions.

3. Change Of Itinerary After Commencement of Travel

Change of Itinerary after Travel has commenced will incur penalties to be determined in proportion to the changes made.

4. Travel Insurance Provided By Travelers

All travellers that book with us must have proof that their travel insurance covers the travel period fully and proof of policy must be sent through to our office before departure, along with the insurer's details and your policy number.

5. Discounts For Children

Certain suppliers offer a discounted rate to children under 12 years old, however, rates will be advised according to the itinerary requested at the time of booking. Certain accommodation establishments may refuse permission to children under the age of 12 years, such as certain private game lodges. Acceptance of children is therefore subject to the availability of family units and specific conditions implemented by the supplier.

6. Child Policies

Suppliers, which allow children under 12, may have restrictions regarding activities, in which children may partake. This is at the discretion of the supplier and needs to be confirmed by us at the time of booking. We shall not be held liable for any changes to the suppliers' child policy.
